- (b) any personal injury to or death of any person, arising out of, or caused by, the supply or non-supply of the Goods and any performance or non-performance of Services by the Supplier.

2. Terms and Conditions

- (a) Subject to clause 2(b):
 - (i) these Terms and Conditions apply to the purchase of Goods and Services by the Company to the exclusion of all other terms and conditions, including any which the Supplier purports to apply or are endorsed on any correspondence or documents issued by the Supplier, irrespective of their date of communication to the Company;
 - (ii) the Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior understandings (whether oral or written) regarding its subject matter.
- (b) A negotiated written contract for the purchase of Goods and Services which is properly executed by the Company under power of attorney or in accordance with s127 Corporations Act 2001 will prevail over these Terms and Conditions.
- (c) To the extent of any inconsistency between these Terms and Conditions and the Purchase Order, the Purchase Order will prevail.
- (d) The operation of the Sale of Goods (Vienna Convention) Act 1986 (WA) is expressly excluded.

3. Supply of Goods and/or Services

- (a) The Supplier must supply the Goods and Services to the Company in accordance with this Agreement.
- (b) Services must be performed by the person(s) specified to perform the Services in the Purchase Order (if any). The Supplier must, at the request of the Company, remove or replace any personnel involved in performing the Services on the Site.
- (c) The Supplier must:
 - (i) make the necessary arrangements for obtaining access, approvals, equipment, and facilities necessary to supply the Goods and Services;
 - (ii) use its own materials and equipment, at its cost, to provide the Goods and Services unless otherwise agreed in writing with the Company; and
 - (iii) if the Company supplies materials or equipment for use by the Supplier (Company Equipment), keep the Company Equipment maintained and properly secured and comply with all directions given by the Company in relation to the Company Equipment.

4. Delivery

- (a) The Supplier must deliver the Goods to the Delivery Point, and perform the Services, by the Delivery Date(s). The Supplier must strictly comply with any direction given to it by the Company in relation to the manner of performance of the Services or delivery of the Goods to the Delivery Point.
- (b) Should it become apparent to the Supplier that the Delivery Date(s) for the delivery of the Goods or performance of the Services will not be met, the Supplier must immediately notify the Company when performance will occur. If complete performance does not occur on the Delivery Date(s), the Company may terminate the Agreement in accordance with clause 17(a).

5. Payment and Price

- (a) The Supplier must submit to the Company on the Delivery Date, in the case of Goods, or within 7 days of the end of each calendar month, in the case of Services, an invoice setting out the Purchase Order number and amount owing by the Company.
- (b) Invoices must be supported by such records and other documents as are reasonable to substantiate the amounts claimed by the Supplier.
- (c) The Company will make payment within 30 days of the end of the month of the invoice.
- (d) The Company may withhold payment until all Goods have been tested and accepted by the Company.
- (e) If the Company disputes the amount of an invoice, the Company will not be required to pay the amount in Dispute until the Dispute is resolved.
- (f) The Company is not obliged to pay for any Goods not delivered or Services not performed in accordance with this Agreement, or make payment against any invoice or claim for payment which does not show the Purchase Order number, or pay for any goods or services not shown in the Purchase Order.

- (g) Unless stated otherwise in the Purchase Order, the prices shown in the Purchase Order are in Australian currency, firm, not subject to adjustment, and exclusive of GST.

6. Title and risk

- (a) The Supplier warrants that it has good title to the Goods and that the Goods are free from any encumbrances, liens or any third party claims whatsoever.
- (b) Title to all Goods passes to the Company on delivery or, if the Company pays any amount before delivery, pro-rata the amount paid, at the time of payment.
- (c) Transfer of the title will not affect the rights of the Company as stated in the Agreement.
- (d) Risk in the Goods will be with the Supplier until the delivery of the Goods and receipt by the Company at the Delivery Point.

7. Warranty

- (a) Without limiting any other warranty or obligation under the Agreement, the Supplier warrants:
 - (i) the Services will be performed, and the Goods will be manufactured, to the standard of care, skill and diligence normally expected of a reputable and competent supplier of similar goods and services;
 - (ii) the Services will be performed in a safe manner, by appropriately qualified and trained personnel;
 - (iii) the Goods are new, genuine, of merchantable quality, fit for the purpose intended, and free of defects in materials, workmanship, and design;
 - (iv) the Goods and Services will comply with the Specification and all applicable laws and Australian standards;
 - (v) the Goods will be appropriately packaged to protect against damage during handling, transit, and storage;
 - (vi) the Goods will correspond to any sample provided to the Company before the Purchase Order was issued;
 - (vii) if the Supplier demonstrated the Services to the Company before the Purchase Order was issued, the Services will correspond in nature and quality with the Services demonstrated;
 - (viii) if the Supplier showed to the Company a result achieved by the Services before the Purchase Order was issued, the Services will correspond in nature and quality with the services which achieved that result;
 - (ix) the sale or use of the Goods or Services will not infringe or contribute to the infringement of any Intellectual Property Rights (IP Warranty); and
 - (x) there will be no defect or failure or malfunction of the Goods and Services (except to the extent attributable to wrongful use or failure to maintain) during a period of 12 months from the Delivery Date(s) (Defects Liability Period).
- (b) The Company is not liable to pay the Supplier for any Goods or Services that contain Defects until the Defects have been adequately remedied.

- (c) Upon receipt of notice that Goods or Services contain Defects, the Supplier shall:
 - (i) diligently, and within the timeframe specified in the notice, or if any plan for rectification is approved by the Company, in accordance with such plan; and
 - (ii) at its own cost and expense (and no cost to the Company) re-perform, replace, or repair and make good the Goods or Services or part thereof found to be Defective (at the Company's option).
- (d) With respect of any remedial work of Defects performed by the Supplier under this clause 7, the Defects Liability Period will be extended for a period of 12 months from the date the remedial work is completed.
- (e) If the Supplier fails to rectify any Defect (or diligently perform such rectification) in accordance with clause 7(c), the Company may rectify the Defect and the cost of such rectification will be a debt due and recoverable from the Supplier and may be deducted from any monies owing to the Supplier by the Company.
- (f) The Company's rights under clauses 7(c) and (e) are in addition to and not in lieu of any other remedies it may have at law or in equity.
- (g) The Supplier must ensure the Company has the full benefit of any manufacturer's warranties applicable to the Goods (and pursue such warranties on the Company's behalf if it requests).

8. Confidentiality

The Supplier must keep all information relating to the Company, its technology, projects and operations, the Services, and the Agreement strictly confidential.

9. Intellectual Property Rights

- (a) The Company will retain sole ownership of all Intellectual Property Rights in all documents, materials and inventions which are generated, created or acquired (excluding use under licence from a third party) by the Supplier or the Supplier's personnel directly in connection with the performance of the Services under this Agreement (Relevant Intellectual Property Rights) for its own use and benefit in any manner it sees fit without any further fee payable to or consent required from the Supplier.
- (b) The Supplier will assign or transfer and will procure that the Supplier's personnel assign or transfer all Relevant Intellectual Property Rights to the Company and sign all such documents and do all things necessary to give effect to this clause 9.
- (c) Each party will continue to retain sole ownership of all Intellectual Property Rights owned by that party before the provision of the Goods or Services commenced, or any Intellectual Property Rights acquired or developed by that party independently of the performance of this Agreement (Background Intellectual Property).

- (d) Each party grants to the other party a perpetual, non-exclusive royalty-free licence to its Background Intellectual Property as far as reasonably necessary for the Supplier to perform this Agreement and for the Company to obtain the benefit of the Goods and Services.

10. Compliance with applicable laws

The Supplier must comply with and ensure its personnel comply with all applicable laws and relevant standards published by the Standards Association of Australia that relate in any way to the supply of the Goods or performance of Services under this Agreement.

11. Health, Safety, Environmental and Social Responsibility

Without limiting clause 10, the Supplier must strictly comply with and ensure that all its personnel strictly comply with:

- (a) all applicable laws in relation to health, safety, and environmental protection;
- (b) all Corporate Social Responsibility Laws; and
- (c) all policies and procedures notified to the Supplier by the Company from time to time and all lawful directions of the Company, in relation to activities carried out on the Site or Goods supplied to the Company, and use reasonable endeavours to ensure all persons in its supply chain comply with Corporate Social Responsibility Laws.

12. Insurance

The Supplier must procure and maintain the following insurances with reputable insurers on terms approved by the Company:

- (a) public and products liability insurance for not less than $20,000,000 or such other amount as the Company reasonably specifies;
- (b) insurance which covers the Goods for their replacement value until delivery of the Goods to the Delivery Point;
- (c) if the Services include advice or other professional services, professional liability insurance for not less than $5,000,000 or such amount as the Company reasonably specifies.
- (d) workers compensation insurance as required by law; and
- (e) such other insurances as the Company reasonably requires,

and provide certificates of currency upon the Company's request.

13. Indemnity

The Supplier will indemnify the Company and its personnel against all liabilities arising out of or in connection with:

- (a) any Third Party Claims;
- (b) the Supplier's failure to comply with all applicable laws whilst performing this Agreement;
- (c) the presence of the Supplier or any of its personnel on or about any Company premises;
- (d) any Employee Claims; and
- (e) any breach of the IP Warranty.

14. Consequential Loss

Neither party will be liable to each other for any consequential loss or damages of any nature whatsoever whether based on contract, warranty, tort (including negligence) or otherwise including (but not limited to) those arising out of delay, loss of product, loss of production, business interruption, loss of revenue or loss of profits howsoever arising.

15. Disputes

If there is any Dispute between the parties concerning or arising out of this Agreement, the parties must meet to attempt to resolve the Dispute. If the parties fail to agree within 30 days after first meeting, either party may commence legal proceedings to resolve the Dispute.

16. Force Majeure

- (a) If a Force Majeure Event occurs:
 - (i) the party affected by the Force Majeure Event will submit a notice to the other party as soon as practicable of the Force Majeure Event and the extent to which that party is unable to comply with its obligations;
 - (ii) the obligations of a party under this Agreement will be suspended to the extent that it is wholly or partially precluded from complying with its obligations under this Agreement by the Force Majeure Event;
 - (iii) the affected party will use all reasonable diligence and endeavours to seek remedy, avoid or overcome the Force Majeure Event as quickly as practicable and otherwise seek to minimise any delays which may result from the Force Majeure Event;
 - (iv) the affected party will promptly on the cessation of the Force Majeure Event notify the other party of the cessation and recommence performance of its obligations under this Agreement; and
 - (v) if the affected party is the Supplier, an amendment to the Delivery Date shall be the Supplier's sole remedy for any delays caused by the Force Majeure Event. The Supplier is not entitled to any increases in Price, damages, expenses or costs in relation to the effect of the Force Majeure Event.
- (b) The parties acknowledge that in the event of an occurrence of a Force Majeure Event affecting the Supplier, the Company will be entitled to have the Goods supplied and Services performed by a person other than the Supplier during the period of the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event.
- (c) Either party may terminate this Agreement by giving written Notice to the other party if a Force Majeure Event continues for a period of six (6) months after a written notice is given under clause 16(a)(i) in respect of that Force Majeure Event.
- (d) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to clause 16(c):
 - (i) the Company (without prejudice to any other rights or remedies it has) must pay the Supplier in accordance with clause 5, after receipt of an invoice, of the portion of the Price due to the

Supplier for the Goods delivered and Services performed in the relevant period up to the date of termination; and

- (ii) the Supplier is not entitled to any other Claim.

- (e) In this clause 16, "Force Majeure Event" means any occurrence or event which delays or prevents a party performing its obligations under this Agreement which are beyond the reasonable control on the part of the party affected and which, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, proper precautions and reasonable foresight, the affected party is unable to reasonably prevent or provide against provided that an inability by a party to pay any money due under this Agreement cannot of itself constitute a Force Majeure Event.

17. Termination

- (a) If the Supplier:
 - (i) becomes insolvent or commits an act of bankruptcy;
 - (ii) fails to perform the Services, or deliver the Goods, by the Delivery Date(s);
 - (iii) is in breach of any of these Terms and Conditions and fails to remedy the breach within 7 days of receiving written notice from the Company of the breach;
 - (iv) has neglected or omitted to carry out any direction of the Company in respect of the Agreement and fails to comply with the direction within 7 days of receiving a notice to comply from the Company; or
 - (v) has intimated that it is unwilling or unable to complete its obligations under the Agreement, the Company may terminate the Agreement without prejudice to its rights to recover damages or any other rights and make such other arrangements as the Company may consider necessary. Any additional expenditure incurred by the Company in connection therewith will be a debt due from the Supplier to the Company and payable on demand.

- (b) The Company may terminate the Agreement at any time at its absolute discretion without assigning any reason for the termination. In such circumstances, the Company will pay the Supplier for any Goods and Services already supplied and all costs reasonably incurred by the Supplier up to the time of termination. Any Goods and Services so paid for, whether completed or not, will become the property of the Company. The Supplier must provide all necessary supporting and substantiating documentation to evidence the costs incurred. The Company's liability to Supplier must under no circumstances exceed the amount for the Goods and Services otherwise payable under this Agreement.

18. GST

- (a) The rates and prices under this Agreement do not include any amount for GST.
- (b) If a supply under this Agreement is subject to GST, the recipient must pay to the supplier an additional amount equal to the amount of the consideration multiplied by the rate at which GST is imposed in respect of the supply.

- (c) The additional amount is payable at the same time as the consideration for the supply is payable or is to be provided. However, the additional amount need not be paid until the supplier gives the recipient a tax invoice.
- (d) If a party is entitled to be reimbursed or indemnified under the Agreement, the amount to be reimbursed or indemnified does not include any amount for GST for which the party is entitled to an input tax credit.
- (e) The terms "consideration", "GST", "input tax credit", "recipient", "supply" and "tax invoice" used in this clause 18 have the same meaning as in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth).

19. Notices

A notice served under this Agreement will be deemed to have been properly served if sent in writing to the address of the recipient as specified in the Purchase Order or otherwise notified by the recipient by prepaid mail, personally delivered, facsimile or email.

20. Set off

Without prejudice to any other rights, the Company may deduct from any amounts which may be, or become, payable to the Supplier, any money which may be or become payable from the Supplier to the Company including, without limitation, amounts which are stated in this Agreement to be debts due and payable by the Supplier to the Company.

21. Independent contractor

The relationship between the Company and Supplier is that of principal and independent contractor.

22. Assignment

The Supplier may not assign the whole or any part of this Agreement without the prior approval of the Company.

23. Subcontracting

- (a) The Supplier must not engage any subcontractor to supply the Goods or perform the Services without the prior written consent of the Company.
- (b) The Supplier will ensure that any subcontractor it engages complies with the terms of this Agreement.
- (c) The engagement of a subcontractor does not relieve the Supplier from any of its obligations under this Agreement.
- (d) The subcontractor's performance, including the subcontractor's acts and omissions, shall be deemed to be the performance, act and omission of the Supplier.

24. Governing Law and jurisdiction

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Western Australia and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Western Australia.

25. Cyber Security

- (a) In clause 25 the following definitions apply:
 - (i) Cyber Security Incident means the loss or unauthorised destruction, alteration, disclosure of, access to, or control of a Digital Environment.

- (ii) Cyber Security means technologies, processes, procedures and controls that are designed to protect Digital Environments from Cyber Security Incidents.

- (iii) Digital Environment means information technology systems, operational technology systems, networks, internet-enabled applications or devices and the data contained within such systems

- (b) Both the Supplier and the Company must:

- (i) implement appropriate Cyber Security measures and systems and otherwise use reasonable endeavours to maintain its Cyber Security;
- (ii) have in place appropriate plans and procedures to allow it to respond efficiently and effectively to a Cyber Security Incident; and
- (iii) regularly review its Cyber Security arrangements to verify its application in practice and maintain and keep records evidencing the same..

- (c) Both parties must use reasonable endeavours to ensure that any third party providing services on its behalf in connection with this Agreement complies with the terms of clause 25(b)(i) to clause 25(b)(iii).

- (d) If a party becomes aware of a Cyber Security Incident which affects or is likely to affect either party's Cyber Security, the party must promptly notify the other party, and in any event no later than 4 hours after becoming aware of a Cyber Security Incident.

- (e) If the Cyber Security Incident is within the Digital Environment of one of the parties, that party must:

- (i) promptly take all steps reasonably necessary to mitigate and/or resolve the Cyber Security Incident; and
- (ii) as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than 6 hours after the original notification, provide the other party with details of how it may be contacted and any information it may have which may assist the other party in mitigating and/or preventing any effects of the Cyber Security Incident.

- (f) Each party must share with the other party any information that subsequently becomes available to it which may assist the other party in mitigating and/or preventing any effects of the Cyber Security Incident.

- (g) Neither party will be liable to the other for any loss or damage caused by a breach of this clause 25.

26. Modern Slavery

- (a) The Supplier acknowledges that the Company has obligations under the Modern Slavery Laws and is committed to providing publicly accessible information and reporting regarding modern slavery.
- (b) The Supplier warrants and represents that it will comply with the Modern Slavery Laws and will not do or omit to do anything which causes the Company to breach the Modern Slavery Laws and will do all things reasonably required to enable the Company to comply with the Modern Slavery Laws.
